

Required Report - public distribution

Date: 7/21/2000

GAIN Report #KS0085

Korea, Republic of

Promotion Opportunities Report - July

2000

Prepared by: Daryl A Brehm
U.S. Embassy, Seoul

Drafted by: All ATO Staff

Report Highlights:

- 1. US Food Festival in Wal-Mart stores in Korea, November
- 2. Alaska Seafood Festival in 63 Building, August 1 - 25
- 3. Alaska Seafood Festival in Ritz-Carlton Seoul, August 28 - September 29
- 4. US Food Festival in Hotel Lotte Cheju, Mid August
- 5. Biotech/Food safety Press Mission to the US, September 23 - October 3
- 6. Wine Seminar and Tasting Event by California Wine Institute, September 19
- 7. Seminar on B2B in Food Trade between the US and Korea, September 2000
- 8. PMA Show scheduled to attend for October 23 - 29, 2000 in Anaheim.

Includes PSD changes: No
Includes Trade Matrix: No
Unscheduled Report
Seoul ATO [KS2], KS

“The promotional activities listed are provided for informational purposes only. No endorsement should be implied unless specifically stated. Terms and conditions of participation are the responsibility of the activity organizer. Please contact the organizer directly for further information.”

Section I. Trade Shows

N/A

Section II. Retail In-Store Promotions

1. ATO Seoul is planning to organize ‘US Food Festival’ with Wal-Mart Korea in November 2000. The event will be held in all six Wal-Mart stores in Korea showcasing various fresh and processed US food products with special promotional events to attract consumers. Joint recruitment of participants by ATO Seoul and Wal-Mart Korea will start early August once the finalized official plan for the event is announced by Wal-Mart Korea.

Section III. Hotel, Restaurant, Institutional (HRI) Food Service Promotions

1. ‘Alaska Seafood Festival’ will be held in the 63 Building from August 1 to 25 supported by the state of Alaska and ATO Seoul.

2. ‘Alaska Seafood Festival’ will be held in the Ritz-Carlton Seoul from August 28 to September 29. ATO sponsors cash and promotional materials.

3. ATO Seoul is working with Hotel Lotte Cheju to organize ‘US Food Festival in August, 2000. The event will feature special dishes prepared with various US food materials including US beef and pork.

Section IV. Other Promotional Activities (e.g. product seminars, catalog shows, sales missions)

1. ATO Seoul is organizing a Biotech/Food Safety Press Mission to the U.S. in late September. Eight Korean press members will be recruited for the trip and will visit appropriate organizations and facilities of USDA, FDA, and academic institutes. The mission aims to help the Korean press to develop unbiased views on issues related to biotech and food safety.

2. The California Wine Marketing Institute is coming to Seoul to hold a seminar and tasting event at JW Marriot Hotel on September 19. ATO Seoul is working with the California State Office in Seoul to recruit participants from wine importers, Hotels, restaurants, and the press.

3. ATO Seoul is planning to hold a seminar on ‘B2B in food trade between the US and Korea in September, 2000. About five companies from both the US and Korea in B2B food trade business will be invited to give sessions to the audience from all related industries in Korea. The seminar aims to develop a better understanding of the impact and value of information technology in food trade between the US and Korea.

4. Produce Market Association (PMA) Show scheduled for October 23 - 29, 2000 in Anaheim. ATO Seoul will sponsor 8 Korean buyers to attend the show and seminars and tour the produce export industry in cooperation with the Western Growers Association.

5. Buyers Mission Reunion - the ATO will host a reunion for all buying mission members of the past 3 years. The event will include a seminar on the Supplier Credit Guarantee Program, and a discussion on how to make future missions even more successful.

Agricultural Trade Office
American Embassy - Seoul
Unit #15550
APO AP 96205-0001
Phone: 82-2-397-4188
Fax: 82-2-720-7921
E-Mail: ATOSeoul@fas.usda.gov