Report Highlights:

Taiwan recently announced public rice tenders for the rest of its 2005 public rice sector quota. The tenders total 10,671.5 tons, and are divided into four small tenders for glutinous and long grain rice. The tenders are scheduled for December 26 and December 28 for technical and price bids, respectively. Several tenders failed due to ceiling price issues earlier this year.

Public Rice Tenders for Glutinous and Long Grain Rice

Taiwan has announced four new tenders for short and long grain milled glutinous rice, and long grain brown and milled rice. Technical bids and price bids for the announced tenders are scheduled for December 26 and 28, respectively. Please see the following tables for details of the individual tender invitations.

To date, Taiwan has signed contracts for 86 percent of its 2005 public sector rice quota. The newly announced tenders combined are equal to 11 percent of the quota. A tender for the other three percent of the quota was announced earlier, and is scheduled to take place on December 15th.
