Report Highlights:

On April 1, Japan's Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (MAFF) announced tariff-rate quota (TRQ) volumes for dairy products that will be open during Japanese Fiscal Year (JFY) 2022 (April to March). The announcement includes quotas for natural cheese for processing, skimmed milk powder, evaporated milk, butter and butter oil, as well as certain whey products. The quota volume for natural cheese for processing decreased three percent from JFY 2021.

General Information:

On April 1, 2022, Japan's Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (MAFF) announced tariff-rate quota (TRQ) volumes for dairy products that will be in effect during Japanese Fiscal Year (JFY) 2022 (April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2023). These TRQs operated by MAFF are separate from the designated dairy product TRQs operated by the Agriculture and Livestock Industries Corporation (ALIC) announced on January 28 (see JA2022-0032). See Table 1 below for the list of MAFF TRQs.

For the "natural cheese for processed cheese production" TRQ, each applicant (within Japan) is allowed to import natural cheese duty-free up to 2.5 times the volume of domestic cheese it uses for the production of processed cheese. The volume allocation for this TRQ was 3 percent from JFY 2021 to 55,500 MT. While the TRQs for skimmed milk powder (for other purposes) and butter and butter oil remained unchanged, each volume for the sub-category was adjusted based on MAFF's projection of domestic demand and production (see Table 1 for the details).
