Export prices for most grades of Thai rice remain unchanged from the previous week, except for fragrant rice prices, which further declined 3-4 percent. Reduced domestic prices more than offset the strengthening of the Thai baht, which strengthened to 30.0 baht/U.S. $1.00 from the previous week's exchange rate of 30.2 baht/U.S. $1.00. Domestic prices of fragrant rice declined significantly as new crop supplies approached their peak. Under the MY2019/20 Paddy Rice Price Guarantee Program, farmers who harvested main rice crop during November 1-15, 2019 will receive the compensation of 2,491 baht per metric ton (U.S. $83/MT) for white paddy rice and 1,201 baht per metric ton (U.S. $40/MT) for Pathumthani fragrant paddy rice as the market prices were lower than the guarantee prices (Table 2).

Note on data: Export figures since March 22, 2002, do not include fragrant rice. In addition, during May 1, 2013 - December 18, 2016, export data did not include 25% - 100% grade white rice exports as the reporting authority was moved from the Thai Board of Trade to the Ministry of Commerce's Office of Commodity Standards, which does not release official export data. FAS/BKK reports only the official export numbers available from the Board of Trade of Thailand. The reader should bear in mind these differences when comparing historical data with current data.
