Report Highlights:

This report provides a summary and unofficial translation of Decree 43/2017/ND-CP, dated April 14, 2017 of the Government of Vietnam (GVN) on goods labeling, including all categories of food, beverages, and agricultural inputs circulated in Vietnam, both domestically produced and imported.

This Decree replaced Decree 89/2009 on goods labeling and took effect from June 1, 2017.

Summary:

Decree 43/2017 provides label contents and presentation thereof of goods circulated in Vietnam, including imported goods. Accordingly, this Decree extends mandatory contents for virtually all types of food and beverage products circulated in Vietnam, including: food, foodstuff, irradiated foods, genetically engineered (GE) food, supplemental food, beverages (other than wine and liquor), wine and liquor, food additives, food ingredients, and micronutrients. It also provides mandatory contents for agricultural inputs such as veterinary drugs, pesticides, animal feed, and fertilizers, in addition to a host of industrial products.

This Decree was originally notified to World Trade Organization (WTO) as a draft Decree amending and supplementing a number of articles of Decree 89/2006 on the labelling of goods (G/TBT/N/VNM/83 dated June 13, 2016). However, the final draft was revised to wholly replace Decree 89/2006, and was not re-notified to WTO.

The organizational structure of the Decree is as follows:

Chapter I: General provisions

Chapter II: Label contents and presentation thereof

Chapter III: Implementation provisions

Appendix I: Mandatory contents to be presented by the nature of the goods

Appendix II: Presentation of quantities on goods' labels

Appendix III: Presentation of date of manufacture, expiration date, and other points of time for goods

Appendix IV: Presentation of ingredients and ingredient quantities of goods

Appendix V: Other presentation of specifications, warnings on hygiene and safety of goods

Mandatory contents on goods labels: Mandatory contents on the labels of goods include: i) Name of goods, ii) Name and address of the enterprise responsible for the goods; iii) Origin of goods, and iv) Other details in conformity with the nature of the goods prescribed in Appendix I of this Decree and other relevant legal documents.

Language: Mandatory information on the label must be written in Vietnamese. For goods imported into Vietnam with labeling that has not represented or insufficiently represents mandatory information in Vietnamese, a secondary label containing mandatory information in Vietnamese is required.

Secondary labels for imported goods: must contain Vietnamese contents consistent with the original label contents and supplement other mandatory contents that are required by the nature of the goods as prescribed in this Decree.

Date of manufacture and expiration date: must be written in the "date-month-year" format (according to the solar calendar) and must also be noted in this order if those dates are presented in another order on the product. However, this Decree provides flexible choices for the presentation of expiration dating that may be represented either as a "use by" date or "best before" date (see Section 1, Appendix III).

Ingredients and ingredient quantities: Presentation of ingredients means listing the name of materials, including any additives which are used in the manufacture or that are present in the final product although possibly in a modified form. For foodstuffs, their ingredients must be listed in descending order of predominance by weight.

In addition, Decree 43 provides a transitional provision regarding the goods that were labeled in accordance with the Government's Decree No. 89/2006. Accordingly, the goods that were labeled and produced, imported, circulated, or used before the effective date of Decree 43 shall continue to be circulated or used until their expiration date. Those labels and commercial packages affixed with goods labels in accordance with Decree 89/2006 that have been produced or printed before the effective date of Decree 43/2017 shall continue to be used for a period not exceeding two years from the effective date of Decree 43/2017.

Post has gathered some early reactions from interested industry sources on Decree 43/2017. Most significantly, and reflecting input from its company membership, the American Chamber of Commerce in Vietnam (ACCJ) sent a letter before the Decree's enforcement date to the Directorate of Standards, Metrology and Quality, under the Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST), requesting clarification on certain provisions. This input also sought adaptation of certain provisions to business realities in areas such as allowing for the continued use of goods labels that are approved by competent authorities (but not yet produced or printed before the effective date). Another comment addressed warning statements for food and beverages, noting this requirement should follow the existing Joint Circular 34 on labeling for prepacked food. Post also notes that MOST has confirmed in a response to industry that Decree 43 does not override existing regulations (see GAIN Report VM5088) on the labeling of ingredient content for genetically-engineered (GE) foods.

Post will be following up with ACCJ and others to monitor the impact of this Decree and work with Vietnam competent authorities to help ensure implementation minimizes the impact on trade of food and agricultural products from the United States. Should U.S. exporters have any questions, please email: aghanoi@fas.usda.gov.
